

THE WEXNER FOUNDATION

WEXNER SUMMIT ON LEADERSHIP SKILLS PRESENTER SCHEDULE

NOVEMBER 7, 2021

10-11 am PT/1-2 pm ET/20:00-21:00 IT

PRESENTER	TITLE OF BREAK OUT ROOM	TITLE	DESCRIPTION	FACILITATOR	NOTE TAKER
Nurit Gal	Nurit: Renewable Targets	Supporting Israel's renewable targets without a formal position	Advancing Israel's renewable market from a consultant position	Roy Keidar	Yair Hakak
Shay Soffer	Shay: Automated Vehicles	Automated Vehicles in time of pandemic demands strong governmental leadership	Hard-hit by the COVID-19 crisis, the automotive sector must have strong leadership to recalculate its route	Ronit Ovadia	Chava Erlich-Roginsky
Nicole Hod Stroh	Nicole: Founder vs ED	Trouble aligning expectations	I run a philanthropic foundation. The foundation's president measures success according to a completely different set of criteria. It becomes impossible to fulfill his expectations	Gillad Eisin	Ronit Heyd
Omri Dagan	Omri: Senior Executive Training	Leading, planning and executing policy in a VUCA world while entering a new position	How to change budgetary senior executives' mindset so it will be clear that in times of Volatility, Uncertainty, Complexity and Ambiguity - allocating resources that support processes of training, developing and accompanying senior executives is not a luxury, but a necessity?	Udit Corinaldi-Sirkis	Ofer Cohen

Jason Friedland	Jason: COVID safety vs individual liberty	Creating and managing vaccine-related mandates for a Jewish Day School	As President of the Board of Trustees, how do I balance keeping the most people safe, while valuing and respecting individual choices? How do I deal with the criticism when those two values are in conflict with each other?	Michael Shiner	Debbie Berman
Diana Ganger	Diana: Cogeneration living and learning	Cogeneration living and learning: a social vision for a healthier society	Covid 19 has thrown a wrench to in person programing	Cintra Pollack	Raymond Silverstein
Laura Lauder	Laura: Founders vs Going to Scale	How to involve the founders in the expansion of a start-up	We are scaling up a start-up nationally, and we are worried about a perception of control over the expansion by the original founders who are going to be involved.	Catherine Schneider	Mark Achler