

THE WEXNER FOUNDATION

WEXNER SUMMIT ON LEADERSHIP SKILLS PRESENTER SCHEDULE

NOVEMBER 9, 2021

11:45 am-12:45 pm PT/2:45-3:45 pm ET/21:45-22:45 IT

PRESENTER	TITLE OF BREAK OUT ROOM	TITLE	DESCRIPTION	FACILITATOR	NOTE TAKER
Maria Ben-Assa	Maria: Ministry of Health	Creating a new entity in the MOH during the pandemic	the challenge of building strategy, collaborating with partners, executing "over zoom" and proving value for the future	Carine Warsawski	Jonathan Goodman
Shoshana Gelfand	Shoshana: international interreligious dialogue	Maintaining international interreligious dialogue during a pandemic	My role leading interreligious dialogue between Jews and the Vatican depends on maintaining trusting relationships; I need to inspire my colleagues at the Vatican to work with me to find new ways to build these relationships.	Edward Mermelstein	Susan Saal
Anat Ekka Zohar	Anat: online health services	Transformation and acceleration of digital health services during a worldwide crisis	The dilemma of health services supply during worldwide crisis was a conflict between the necessity of personal treatment vs. social distancing and the technological ability to supply digital health.	Hagay Carmi	Eli Hotovely
Ron Tzur	Ron: Data Denial	Decision makers ignorance of mega-trends	Even when there are clear data regarding Mega-trends that change reality are in front of the eyes of decision makers, they often avoid dealing with it.	Naomi Gefen	Tal Werner-Kling
Muhammed Shameyeh	Muhammed: Crime in Arab Israeli Society	Dealing with the phenomenon of violence and crime within Arab society in Israel	Raising awareness among policy and decision makers in various sectors about the importance' and defining that motives or factors that cause the phenomenon as well as proposed solutions of coping.	Keren Azulay	Vadim Perman

Daniel Rosen	Daniel: Mental Wellness for Teens	Creating a community space for adolescent well-being	The challenge of creating a program for a physical place where teens can have emotional support, learn about wellness and mindfulness, and other ways to promote mental wellness.	Dena Schulman-Green	Julie Finkelstein
Howard Zack	Howard: Merging: Opportunity and Tension	Striking the right note for Jewish learning	Melding a Shalom Hartman curriculum to a Honeymoon Israel constituency and duly adapting for the striking differences marking those two.	Lois Kohn-Claar	Jay Liberman
Melissa Buckner	Melissa: Jewish Teen Engagement	Jewish teen engagement - surviving to thriving in the Covid era	Challenges to Jewish teen engagement were already significant - how do we reengage and create a stronger community for our teens?	Dan Rubin	Rachel Newman Schwartz
Michael Halbert	Michael: Wealth vs Mission	Lifeline or Takeover?	A successful, established Jewish hands-on outreach organization receives an attractive but suspect merger offer from a wealthy Jewish outreach funding organization	Nancy Beren	Caroline Kelly
Connie Kanter	Connie: Rethinking Day School Across a City	The opportunity for Seattle day school education	Seizing the opportunity for day school education after a 40% decline in enrollment since 2013.	Jon Levisohn	Reuben Posner